Happy new year and merry Christmas

Dear friends!

This year was not an easy one for all of us.

Many of you faced new unpredictable legal risks which require excessive attention and energy.

The whole situation in the world promises easy times next year neither.

However, we hope for changes for the better and we are ready to remain being your protection and support, a reliable beacon in the stormy sea of life's challenges.

We are glad to be together with you and wish you all the best in the new year 2023.
